About us

Neighborhood Housing Services of Provo, doing business as NeighborWorks Mountain Country Home Solutions, is a 501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization that has been providing vital community services since 1992. In the early days, our focus was on owner occupied home improvement loans, community volunteer clean up and volunteer home painting events. We have since evolved into building affordable homes, purchase, rehabilitation and resale of dilapidated homes, and have become the first successful nonprofit mortgage lender in the state of Utah.

Our community services include foreclosure avoidance and remediation counseling, homebuyer education classes, credit restoration counseling, rental services, homeownership opportunities, and community event planning.

Our strategic and business plans aid us in aligning ourselves better with the current economic conditions of our great state. As a private nonprofit organization, we pride ourselves in maintaining the flexibility to adjust to the current and most urgent needs of our fellow constituents, including expanding our service area to the greater portion of Central Utah, in all business lines and consulting services for partner agencies.
